[BY ATLANTIC CABLE.] THE PRINCE OF WALES' VISIT TO IRELAND-SPLENDID RECEPTION-HE IS MADE A ENIGHT

OF ST. PATRICK-POLITICAL MEETING IN LON-DOX THE ATAGEA PERCHASE. DUBLIN, April 15-Evening .- The fleet bearing the Trince and Princess of Wales entered the bay this forenoon. Their arrival was announced by a royal salute from all the vessels in the harbor. The fleet came to anchor off

Kingstown shortly before noon, and the Prince and Princess landed. They were received by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland and the Marchioness of Abercorn, and conducted to a special train of cars in readiness to convey them to Dublin. The train proceeded slowly to Dablin; when it arrived at Westlandrow terminus of the road, the Prince, Princess and attendants slighted. A military guard of honor under Major-General Conyngham, was drawn up, forming a hollow square. The Mayor and members of the corporation of Dublin advanced and presented an address of welcome to the royal visitors. All then entered carriages, and the procession was formed, which passed through the principal streets of the city to the castle. The streets, windows and housetops along the route of the procession were densely crowded with spectators, who, by their cheers and cries, manifested the wildest enthusiasm. The buildings on the line of march were richly decorated with flags, flowers and tapestry. The weather was fine, and the display was a complete success. The procession reached the castle at two o'clock, when the Prince and Princess of Wales were conducted to the State apartments provided for their reception.

DUBLIN, April 16 .- The Prince of Wales, accompanied by a large and brilliant party, consisting of the gertlemen of his suite, and many of the principal officers of the Viceregal Government, took a special train for Kildare this morning, where, at the invitation of the Kildare Jockey Club, he visited the Curragh races now in progress at Punchestown. At the race course the Prince was received with great cheering by the immense crowd assembled there. After visiting places of interest in the city of Kildare, his Royal Highness and party returned to this city, reaching the castle at a late hour this evening.

DUBLIN, April 18 .- The Prince of Wales was installed Knight of St. Patrick to-day. The procession attending the ceremony was two miles long. The weather was fine, and the population turned out en masse. A dinner was given this evening in honor of the event.

LONDON, April 16 .- A great political mass meeting of the Liberal party was held at St. James' Hall to-night. Every available portion of the hall was crowded to repletion. Resolves were proposed declaring that the disendowment of all religious sects in Ireland is right, and is imperatively demanded, and that the Tories, in keeping office after the recent vote of the House of Commons against them, violate constitutional usage; and that they should give place to Mr. Gladstone and the leaders of the majority in Parliament. The resolutions were adopted by acclamation.

The Journal de St. Petersburg says the Emperor of Russia has consented to delay until May 1st the payment by the United States of the sum stipulated in the treaty for the transfer of Alaska. The Journal feels confident that the American Congress will vote the necessary appropriation.

LIVERPOOL, April 18-Noon.-Cotton firmer and more doing. Prices unchanged. Uplands affoat more active at 124d. Sales 10,000 bales. Total stock affoat for Liverpool 348,000 bales whereof 10,000 are American.

THE PRESIDENT'S TRIAL-A DAY OF EXCITEMENT -THE CHIEF JUSTICE OVERBULED-EXCLUSION

OF IMPORTANT TESTIMONY. WASHINGTON, April 18 .- IN THE HOUSE, Colfax took the chair informally before the hour of meeting, and, with such members as were present, accompanied the managers to the court. The discussion was resumed on the admission of the Cabinet proceedings, Wilson reading his speech, and Curtis following, Chase decided that that the evidence was ad-

Ye.18—Anthony, Bayard, Buckalew, Dickson, Doolittle, Fessenden, Fowler, Grimes, Henderson, Hendricks, Johnson, McCreary, Patterson, of Tennessee; Ross, Saulsbury, Trumbull, YanWinkle, Vickers and Willey—20.

The announcement of this vote was received with a general rising in the Senate. After the lapse of ten minutes counsel announced they were ready to resume when sufficient quiet was restored. Mr. Chase rapped for fully five minutes before he succeeded in restoring order. This is the first time during the trial that these irregularities have occurred, and the importance of the vote may be inferred therefrom. There was no applause or demonstration, but simply an arising from seats. Every one seemed inclined to ask his neighbor what he thought. This question involved the support of the President by the Cabinet in removing Stanton and appointing Thomas.

The next question was stated as follows: We offer to prove that at the meetings of the Cabinet, Mr. Stanton being present, when the Tenure-of-office bill came up for consideration, the question was asked and the opinion expressed that Mr. Stanton and the other Cabinet officers appointed by Mr. Lincoln did not come under its restrictions. Judge Chase again decided the evidence admissible. Drake appealed and the appeal was sustained by a vote of 22 to 26. On this vote Sprague and

Sherman voted with the minority. The next question was whether the Cabinet apprehended injury to the service by Stanton's continuance. The Senate refused to hear the evidence by a vote of 19 to 30. On this vote Willey voted with the majority. Welles was then subjected to a severe cross-examination, but nothing new was elicited. Postmaster-General James Randall was next called. He said Blodgett was suspended from the Augusta (Ga.) postoffice without the knowledge of or consultation with the President. Randall knew of no appointments of persons in his department who could not take the test oath, and Blodgett was suspended because of his indictment for getting office by perjury. The defence then closed, reserving the right to call other witnesses in case Stanbery, who knew most of the matter, but was sick, thought best. The court then adjourned. Revenue receipts to-lay $469,000; for th week $2,320,000; for the year $150,000,000, Evarts and Curtis have called on Stanbery, but the interview was deemed imprudent, though it is hoped that Stanbery will be able to speak, otherwise Groesbeck follows Evarts. The President is cheerful, but the visitors have got the impression that he has but little hope of acquittal. The position of affairs has been widely canvassed to-day, but no new light has been thrown on affairs.

The Georgia Election.

Augusta, April 19.—The election commences in Georgia to-morrow. The feeling is intense, and the Democrats and Republicans are equally confident. Reports from Columbus state that frauds have been discovered in the registration returns, and charges have been preferred against Hulbert, the Chief of Registration in in the State.

A large meeting was addressed here to-night by Democratic speakers. General Meade has taken ample precautions to preserve order during the progress of elections, troops having been sent to all important points for this purpose. The heavy rains still continue.

Arrest of an Alabama Editor. MONTGOMERY, April 18 .- Mr. Randolph, editor of the Tuscaloosa Monitor, lately had a difficulty with a negro in Tuscaloosa County, in which he cut the negro with a knife. Mr. Rardolph learning that his arrest was ordered by by the military, came to Montgomery last night, and immediately reported to General Sheperd. He was told to report this morning at 10 o'clock, which he did promptly; General Sheperd informed Mr. R. that he must be committed to a military prison, without the benefit of bail. He further remarked that in all cases of military arrest, the parties would be committed to a military prison, there to remain until discharged by a military commission. He was promised a speedy investigation.

The North Carolina Elections. WILMINGTON, April 18 .- The campaign in this State will be attended with unparallelled excitement. Both parties are making desperate efforts. Business will be almost suspended during the election, which commences on Tuesday. In the cities and large towns the negroes will vote the Radical ticket almost en masse, while in the country districts con siderable numbers will remain away from th polls. The vote will exceed that cast for th convention question by at least 75,000, th total registered voters being now nearly 200 000. Holden will probably run considerab behind the vote for the constitution. The feeling between the white and black races more bitter than at any previous period.

Affairs in Virginia.

RICHMOND, April 18 .- The Reconstruction | G Convention adjourned at midnight, subject to G a call from the committee. Only the president and secretary signed the constitution, resolutions having been ad opted dispensing with the signatures of members.

The members of the Conservative Executive Committee have issued an address to the people of the State; also ; call for a convention to meet here on the 7th of May to nominate State

General Schofield to-day suspended J. S. Calvert, State Preasurer, on charges preferred by the Governor, and appointed Geo. Rye, Secretary of the Convention, treasurer ad interim. Jno. L. Pendleton, Superintendent of the State Prison, has been removed, and Burnam Warderell appointed to his place.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE AND THE RADICALS. he New York Independent formally reads

Judge Chase out of the Radical party. It says: We now have reason to believe that Mr. Chase would not accept the Republican nomination for the Presidency, even if it were tendered. We have equal reason to believe, also, that he would accept the Democratic nomination, if it could be tendered on a platform not inconsistent with his well-known views of necessity.

Whereupon the New York Post (Republican) There must be something seriously wrong o rotten in the Republican party, if it is true, as the Independent so pointedly asserts, that a statesman of as high principles and great abilities as Mr. Chase is, stands ready to abandon it, and refuses even to be its standard-bearer. The Independent flugs Mr. Chase away with quite a royal air; but it will occur to many, not Mr. Chase's special friends, that a party has need to be rich in statesmen which can drum out a man like the Chief Justice.

POLITICS IN THE STATE.

THE ELECTION-ITS RESULTS-THE CONSTITU-TION UNDOUBTEDLY RATIFIED-A STRONG DE-

In all portions of the State the election appears to have progressed as quietly as in Charleston. The Democratic vote shows the effect of the recent organization of that party, and on the other hand the Republican vote indicates how completely the colored race were under the control of the League organizations and Radical leaders. The following are the results compiled by us from the letters of our correspondents in various parts of the State: ANDERSON DISTRICT.

Anderson Courthouse.—Total vote 752. For the constitution, 341. Against, 411. Democratic majority, 70.

		A CHARLES OF THE

For Const'ion. Against Columbia-Upper Box.... Lower Box.... 2502 Majority for constitution 1245. The Phoenix says: The election that closed on Thursday, if pears that the League has bound its members, by solemn oaths, to vote as it might dictate. Some affirmed that they could not join their church unless they would swear to vote according to the League. The fiercest threats were used to prevent negroes from voting the Democratic ticket. Do this, and they would be mobbed, hung, shot, ridden on a rail, their head shaved; they would be reduced to slavery; they would again have to get passes, &c., &c. In the Fork, where Captain Beverly Nash was as powerful as the King of Dahomey, they obeyed orders like goold soldiers. The current threat there was, that if they did not vote as Nash might tell them, their "chunk would be outed." Thus the thing was done. But let Nash, Thompson, Simons & Co., notice, for all these things will the colored people call them into judgment.

The Unionville Times says: "There were one thousand one hundred and ninety-nine votes polled at Union Courthouse. It is supposed the vote here is nearly equally divided between the Conservatives and the Radicals. We have not been informed of the number of votes polled at Gowdeysville and Santuc. The inclement weather and swollen streams prevented many from attending the polls, there being only three precincts in the district. The votes will be counted to-day."

WILLIAMSBURG. For Constitution. Kingstree......Iodian Town.... Salters'......294 Gourdin's Depot......269 YORK.

The Democratic majority at Yorkville is about eighty. No other returns. The Yorkville Enquirer says:

ville Enquirer says:

A number of colored voters who had been members of the Union League at this place—convinced that their welfare and future prosperity, and that of the State, depended, to a large extent, upon the selection of intelligent and trustworthy men to frame the laws under which we are to live, came up on Tuesday and voted with the Conservatives.

The conduct of these colored voters is the more praiseworthy from the fact that a number of insolent colored men, of the opposite party, hung about the polls during the day, and endeavored, by threats and intimidation, to prevent such persons from voting independently.

We are in possession of full returns of the

The above returns are unsatisfactory because incomplete. They indicate clearly, however, that the State has gone Republican by a large majority, and that the whites in few of the districts could stem the tide. It is generally believed that Oconee and Pickens will give Democratic majorities. Incomplete returns from Abbeville indicate large Republican majorities. A Democratic majority of fortyeven at Fort Mills, York District, is reported.

THE FRIGHTFUL DISASTER ON THE EBIE RAIL-ROAD-FURTHER PARTICULARS.-We have already had by telegraph a brief account of the terrible railway accident which occurred last Tuesday night near Port Jervis, on the Erie Railroad. The number of lives lost is variously estimated at from fifteen to more than twenty. A dispatch to the New York papers gives the following additional particulars: following additional particulars:

The train to which the accident occurred left Buffalo in charge of conductor Judd, and consisted of engine and tender, three sleeping, two first-class and one second-class, two baggage and one postal car. The train proceeded on time, making the usual stoppages, until evening, when the passengers in the sleeping cars retired for the night. About three oclock cars retired for the night. About three oclock A. M. Messrs. Ames and Horton, who were in charge of the postal car, saw the bell rope straighten out and break, when Mr. Judd immediately remarked to one of the officers that he had lost his rear cars. They ran to the platform of the car, when the lour rear cars were seen rolling down a precipice from seventy-five to one hundred feet high. The seene of the accident is thirteen miles beyond Port fervis, on the Delaware division of the road. The sides of the precipice are formed on jagged rock, and in the descent the cars were broken to pieces. At the bottom is a culvert, ged rock, and in the descent the cars were broken to pieces. At the bottom is a culvert, through which flows a stream, emptying into the Delaware. The disaster was caused by a broken rail, which threw the rear car immedi-ately in front, and the whole were precipitated down the embankment. Conductor Judd and down the choangment. Conductor stud and Division Superintendent Douglass were slightly injured. The cars in going over the embankment turned several times before the bottom was reached, and were nearly demolished. The sleeping car was consumed by fire. The passengers immediately began to rescue the wounded and to remove the bodies of the killed. Many of the latter could not be recognized. ed. Many of the latter could not be recognize Seven persons were burned to death and six others were killed by coming in contact with the jagged rocks, &c. The wounded persons were placed on the train and brought to Port Jervis, which place was reached at nine this Jervis, which place was reached at nine this morning. Several surgeons were immediately summoned and everything was done to alleviate the sufferings of the injured. The bodies of the killed were left on the ground. The catastrophe of course took place in the darkness of the night, and the confusion and terror were appalling, and the horror was greatly increased by the agonizing shricks and grouns of the wounded and dying.

THE LANCASTER FIRE.—The peace of our quiet little town was disturbed on Thursday morning last about daybreak, by the alarm of fire, which proved to be the unoccupied residence of Mr. A. J. Kibler, on Main-street, opposite the store of Hasseltine & Chafee. When first discovered it had made such progress that it was impossible to check it. It rapidly spread to the adjusting, buildings, a stockhouse and it was impossible 10 check it. It rapidly specare to the adjoining buildings, a storehouse and the hotel of Mr. J. M. Crockett. Through the efforts of the freedmen, who displayed conspicuous gallantry on the occasion, the fire spicuous gallantry on the occasion, the fire spicuous gallantry on the occasion, the are was confined to the buildings above named. The stores of Messrs. Hasseltine & Chafee and Hickson & Sadler, on the opposite side of the street, were several times on fire, but a continual stream of water from about one hundred buckets used principally by the freedmen, finally conquered the devuring element in finally conquered the devouring this quarter.—Languager Ledger.

Homicide in Barnwell .- A man in the lower part of Barnwell District, about the Beaufort line named Youmans, killed another named Williams, last week. Youmans, it appears, lost some hogs, a short time since, and being of a superstitions name, waited upon a forlost some hogs, a short time since, and being of a superstitious nature, waited upon a fortune-teller in the neighborhood, who informed him that this man, Williams, had stole them. The charge was, however, a serious one, and so provoking that Williams knocked him down, and as we are informed gave him a severe whipping. He got up and told Williams that he had whipped him, but that he still believed he stole his hogs. He was again whipped, but still believed Williams had committed the theft. The accused sprang on him the third time, as we are informed, when Youmans drew a knife and stabbed him, causing his death in a short while. Williams has been a good departer and is said to be ing his death in a short while. Williams has always borne a good character, and is said to be a quiet, inoffensive man.—Baranelt Sentinet.

The election that closed on Thursday, if tragical in its future, was comical in its exhibitions of the ignorance of the black voters. Men voted who knew no more than a horse of what the thing meant. They were under perfect discipline, however. This election has caused some strange developments. It ap-

SMALL.—WILLIAM SMALL, second son of John and the lamented Louisa's SMALL, was born in Philadelphia, Pa., March 23d, 1140, and died in Augusta, Ga., April 5th, 1868.

The deceased was a great sufferer, yet he bore his afflictions with commendable patience. He has gone to that "bourne whence no traveller returns," and where the troubles and "exations that environ us here never enter. William possessed fine traits of claracter, and if he erred it was from the headnot the heart. Generous, he was esteemed as a friend. Affectionate in dispecition, his demise has thrown a cloud of melanchily over the hearts of those who had watched and loved him from his earliest days. Loved once who had gone before (one of them a noble youth who gave his life to his country on a battlefield in Virginia) greated William on the other shore, where he and they await the coming of the dear ones who still linger in this valse of tears. Let them so live that when they die it may be said of them, too, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

MESSRS. EDITORS:-MY NAME HAS been announced by "Many Native and Adopted Citizens" in your paper as a candidate for the Mayoralty. While profoundly grateful for the motive which prompted the announcement and the compli-ment conveyed, I cannot but think that such nomi nations are premature and tend rather to divide than unite our community. At a time like the present every personal consideration should be sacrificed to the necessity which is upon every lover of law, order and constitutional government to unite as one man in the effort to secure these gifts for our community, and I would consider it indeed unfortunate were love of office, or any other motive except the public good, to find a place in the mind of any one engaged in the struggle now before us. In my opinion, at a crisis like the present, no man has the right to withhold the use of his name or service when he is convinced that the public exigencies re quire both or either; and if at the proper time my fellow-citizens of all classes, "NATIVE AND ADOPTED, should consider my name in connection with the Mayoralty, the most available as the representative of the principles for which we are contending, and to advance the true prosperity of our city, I would not feel at liberty to withhold it.

In the meantime I hope that there will be neither office seeking nor nominations on personal consider rations; that every man will devote his energies t promote the true welfare of our community, and that when the time comes for the selection of candidates, offices will neither be sought nor dec R.
